5. Most Common Mistakes Students Make

❌ 1. Input-Output Format Mistakes

Many students fail coding because:

- They print extra text like "Enter a number"
- Wrong format (missing space/newline)
- Not handling multiple test cases
- Not reading input correctly
- Using wrong data type

✅ Always:

- Print only required output
- Match exact format
- Test with custom inputs
- Handle edge cases

❌ 2. Not Managing Section Time Properly

Since section-wise timer is there, once time ends you cannot return.

❌ 3. Ignoring Sectional Cutoff

Even if total marks are good, failing one section means rejection.

❌ 4. Submitting Coding Question 1 Without Checking

Once submitted, it cannot be modified.
